University-wide scholarships

The following scholarships are available to students commencing study in any course at Swinburne. Applicants should note that some are only available to undergraduate degree students.

Australian Veterans' Children Scholarships

In 2012 the Australian Veterans' Children Assistance Trust (AVCAT) will provide financial assistance for up to 65 students under many different scholarship schemes. All schemes help the selected recipients with the costs of tertiary education. Applicants are considered for all schemes for which they are eligible.

The Australian Veterans' Children Scholarships are available to students undertaking full-time undergraduate university, TAFE or college courses in Australia. The course must be one or more academic years in length.

Value

There are multiple scholarships available and they are valued between $3,000 and $5,000 per year.

Eligibility/Selection criteria

Applicants must be:

- eligible for Youth Allowance benefits
- enrolled, or planning to enrol in a full-time university, TAFE or college course. The course must be one or more academic years in length and at undergraduate level
- the child or grandchild of a person who has operational service with the Australian Navy, Army or Air Force, or have three or more years of continuous full-time service as a member of the Australian Defence Force
- under the age of 25 when applying, unless exceptional circumstances related to veteran's service exist.

How to apply

Applicants should register your interest on 1800 620 361 or email avcat@dva.gov.au.

Charlie Bell Scholarship for Future Leaders

In recognition of the contribution made by the former McDonald's Corporation CEO, Charlie Bell, a scholarship for future leaders has been created in his name. The scholarship, administered by the Charlie Bell School of Management, recognises Charlie's commitment towards the provision of ongoing learning and education.

Up to three successful applicants will be rewarded. One of the successful applicants will be a current employee of McDonald's or one of its franchisees ('McDonald's Employee'), one will be an external applicant and the third recipient may be at the discretion of the selection committee.

The Charlie Bell Scholarship for Future Leaders is available to students undertaking any undergraduate or postgraduate program.

Value

Up to three successful applicants will be rewarded with a contribution of up to $15,000 towards their 2012 tuition fees.

Eligibility/Selection criteria

To be eligible applicants must:

- gain acceptance to or be enrolled in an undergraduate or postgraduate degree at an Australian university
- be available to commence university or continue university in Semester 1, 2012
- be an Australian citizen or permanent resident
- be employed by McDonald's or its franchisees for the Employee award.

Applications will be judged by a selection committee on the basis of relative merit with reference to the following criteria:

- academic and career achievements, goals and ambitions
- personal achievements, goals and ambitions
- community activities and other contributions to society
- how the applicant expects the scholarship to affect their studies and facilitate career aspirations
- an outline of the intended area of study
- recommendations and references
- an interview if short-listed
- quality of presentation.
